

SAXMAX Championship

Current Championship Standings

1st	26	Liam McMillan
2nd	22	Daniel Brown
3rd	20	Andrew Tibbs
4th	18	Ryan Borthwick
5th	16	Ben Kidd
6th	14	Cassey Watson
7th	12	Robert Brown
8th	11	Sam Walmsley
9th	10	Henry Pickering
10th	9	Matthew Venn
11th	8	Jason Timberlake
12th	7	Jake Farndon
13th	6	David Ratcliff
14th	5	Nina Jo Atkinson
15th	1	Tommy Davison
16th	1	Leyton Clarke
17th	1	Joe McMillan
18th	1	Joe Hopkins
19th	1	Amy Scarisbrick
20th	0	Henry King

Henry King (Car 7) was excluded from the results and has to count a zero in the end-of-year points.

Fastest Lap and the new Lap Record went to Liam McMillan.

Driver of the Day went to Ben Kidd - he was one of the 'rollers' - struggled hard to fix the car in time, started from the back of the grid and got up to 5th.

Notes and Comments from the 1st round

Many congratulations to everyone who took part in the inaugural race of SAXMAX. With 22 entries and 20 on the grid, it looks as though it's going to be a success.

Whilst the two 'major' incidents in the untimed session looked serious, nothing more than windscreen and reputations were damaged. However, it does show what can happen if you try just a little bit too hard! Watching what I could of the timed practice and the race, I saw nothing untoward and to me it looked like just another race - well done.

Bad luck awards should go to those who were caught up in the first corner incident - the old saying of "you can't win the race at the first corner, but you can certainly lose it" proved sadly to be true - and to Amy who was plagued with gear-change problems.

Apologies for the garage allocation - I blame it on the Architect's drawing - but at least everyone got to know each other and to start to forge some friendships.

I will confirm to everyone about the holding of the MSA licences as soon as they are back in my possession.

Nicky Funnell, the SAXMAX Formula Administrator, did exceptionally well for her first event and I'm positive that she will prove to be a very useful point-of-contact for you in the future.

I look forward to seeing you at Brands Hatch - if you have any queries, contact details are

Nicky Funnell: nicky@funnell1969@fsworld.co.uk 07843 381329
750 Motor Club: 750MC@btconnect.com 01379 741641.